Forest Landscape Restoration

Integrated approaches to support effective implementation

Edited by Stephanie Mansourian, Mansourian.org; University of Geneva, Switzerland and John Parrotta, US Forest Service, USA

Series: The Earthscan Forest Library

Forest landscape restoration (FLR) is a planned process that aims to regain ecological integrity and enhance human wellbeing in deforested or degraded landscapes. The aim of this book is to better understand the need to take human and institutional factors, as well as the more obvious biophysical, into consideration in FLR. It will interest researchers and professionals in forestry, ecology, geography, environmental governance and landscape studies.
